MESSAGE FROM KOFC

On the weekend of December 14-15, the Knight of Columbus, St Theresa the Little Flower, Council 16005 will organize a Recruitment Drive to get some new potential members to become brother Knights.

The mission of the Knights of Columbus: Together, we're empowering Catholic men to live their faith at home, in their parish, at work and in their community. If you have any family members, friends or men that you know would be a great candidate please don't hesitate to let them know or bring them with you during the weekend.

There will be Knights available to answer questions and provide additional information.

Daniel Boyer
Deputy Grand Knight and
Membership Director of St. Theresa the Little Flower Council 16005

KNOW YOUR SAINTS SAINT LEONARD OF PORT MAURICE

Saint Leonard's feast day is November 26. Born Paul Jerome Casanova in Italy, he was the son of a ship captain. He was sent to a Roman college with the priests at 13 years, as he was a very bright young student. He had originally planned on being a doctor but was called to serve God and became a brother choosing the name Leonard. Eventually he was ordained a Franciscan priest and became a missionary. He was supposed to work in China but unfortunately, he became very ill and was sent home. When he recovered, he travelled around Italy preaching missions and often stayed in the town hearing confessions. He promoted the Stations of the Cross and six hundred places put up stations because of him. He traveled and preached tirelessly but knew it was also important to take time to have quiet time to pray. He preached to other people to draw them to Jesus. He died in Rome at 75 years old.
