CCSAC WALKATHON

Sunday, October 6 is the Centretown Churches Social Action Committee (CCSAC) annual walkathon in support of the vulnerable in our community. CCSAC not only supports the Centretown Food Centre but also other services including hot meals for the homeless, housing support, fellowship programs and advocacy for the vulnerable. This year's walkathon is headquartered at The Church of the Ascension, 253 Echo Drive, and the 2 km walk will follow the canal to Laurier Street and back. Walkers are encouraged to participate and can register as part of Team St. Theresa. Donations to support the walkers and the programs will be taken at the Masses on Sept. 28/29 and Oct. 5/6. Donations of $20 or more will receive a tax receipt. Cheques should be made payable to CCSAC. Donations can also be made on-line through the CCSAC website. St. Theresa Parish has always been a lead supporter of CCSAC as we continue to live our faith through our actions.

GARDENER THANK YOU

Thank you to our talented gardeners, Doreen and Robin McKellar. Sharing their green thumb talent has blessed us with beautiful flowers on both sides of the church and in the front of the parish. They have worked through the summer and spring to plant, feed and encourage beautiful rose blossoms, hardy hydrangeas and a multitude of other colourful and healthy plants. Thank you for your devotion, it is greatly admired and appreciated.
