HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTION

For Health Care Workers ~ We pray for health care workers who serve the sick and the elderly, especially in the poorest countries; may they be adequately supported by governments and local communities.

FATHER VINCENT'S EASTER MESSAGE

Jesus Christ is Risen – Alleluia!

We are Easter People, and our song is Alleluia. Let us not be dampened by covid, rather be rejoicing because He has been protecting us. May this Resurrected Jesus Christ bless each of us and keep us healthy and happy.

Fr. Vincent Pereira, jcd.

CONFIRMATION, FIRST COMMUNION AND RECONCILIATION

We have four children from the Children's Liturgy Group celebrating sacraments this May 8. Three children will be confirmed and one will make her Reconciliation and First Communion. In order to be confirmed the children will have to write an essay on a given topic, discuss the Beatitudes and the Ten Commandments with Father or a deacon, do and complete an act of charity or service and also take part in a mini El Camino Walk to Catholic churches in the area. After Easter we will have a basket with the children's first names on paper and we would appreciate it if you would take a name from the basket to be a prayer partner for the children until May 8 of this year.

THANK YOU

Many thanks to everyone who contributed generously to our Easter Flower fund. Everything is beautiful!

SUPPORTING NELSON HOUSE

As we celebrate the Easter joy of the Resurrection, we are called to live out this Good news. One such way is supporting Nelson House, a local emergency shelter for women and children. We have arranged to bring a little joy to the women at Nelson House this Mother's Day by delivering a small gift bag to each mother. Your support for this initiative would be greatly appreciated. Financial donations will be received before and after the Masses for the next two weekends.
